Racialized women in Canada participate in sport for 3 broad reasons:

1. Physical & mental well-being
2. Socialization & belonging
3. Integration & acculturation

Experiences of discrimination for racialized women:
1. Racism & stigma
2. Verbal abuse & derogatory remarks
3. Exclusion from opportunities
4. Narrow constructions of heterofemininity
5. Cultural & linguistic discrimination
6. Lack of female-only spaces

Next research questions:
How do racialized women & girls experience...

Different sporting roles
Anti-racism & empowering spaces
School-based sports

References